Dear Gary:

You are truly the "Ultimate Entertainer". If I had to describe our Gary Goodman experience, this is how I would have to describe it.....

.....The crowd starts to gather for the event, and at first you experience that awkward sense of unfamiliarity. Then, you notice a small crowd gathering across the room. At first you hear the ooing and awing, then laughter erupts. You gravitate toward the mystery, and all of a sudden, you become a part of the experience. What was once "awkward unfamiliarity" turns into relaxed, inviting experience.

The comedy magic show and snow illusion that followed our cocktail reception and dinner was equally compelling, mystical, and relaxing! Our clients couldn't stop talking about their unique experience.

We very much enjoyed including Gary at our special event this year. His brand of magic, comedy and illusion has a way of making guests feel welcomed and relaxed and really puts everyone at ease. Not only is his magic fascinating, he manages to pull it off with real wit and charm. We look forward to inviting Gary back to share his "Ultimate Entertainment" at a future event.

Sincerely,

Mary Settle
